(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., April 18.—Mrs. Nora C. Bocock has brought sult in the Circuit Court against John T. Bocock for $5.00 damages for brutally assaulting her.
Bocock, is a prominent citizen of the Pisherville neighborhood, and was tried last Friday, charged (with assault and battery upon his daughter-in-law, Mrs.
Nora Bocock, in his own residence. He was fined $10 and cost, and required to give bond to keep the heace for one year. The principal witness in the cree was Mrs. John T. Bocock, who testified to the fact that there had been Ill feelling between Bocock and his daughterin-law for some time. Angry words passed between the two, when Bocock seized a heavy stick and commenced beating her crucilly over the head. The woman was unable to defend herself against the unusual size of the assailant and she soon fell exhausted in the yard, where she lay for nearly two hours, thought to be dead before Bocock would allow his wife or anyone to go to her assistance.

When approached by Mrs. Bocock it was found that the young lady had her nose broken and both eyes were blackened. At the trial the defendant claimed that he was not feeling well, and that the plaintiff was very high tempered. All
